FURTHER INFORMATION CONTINUED FROM PCT/ISA/ 203

The claims are so inadequately supported by the description that no meaningful opinion can be formed on the novelty and inventive step of the claimed invention (Art. 34(4)(a)(ii) PCT).

The claimed invention is a writable multi-layer storage medium and a method and device for recording information thereon. However, the description lacks a disclosure of mechanical, physical and optical characteristics of the writable multi-layer storage medium, of the format of the data and of the volume and file structure of the data on such a multi-layer storage medium. No disclosure of a writable multi-layer storage medium, and of a device/method for recording thereon, was referred to in the application or belonged to the common general knowledge at the filing date. The description contains an explicit reference to the DVD video specification (page 7, line 10) which is, however, accessible only by signing a non-disclosure agreement. In view of the above, the invention is insufficiently disclosed, contrary to Art. 5 and Rule 5.1(a)(v) PCT. A meaningful search can not be carried out (Art. 17(2)(a)(ii) PCT).

The applicant's attention is drawn to the fact that claims relating to inventions in respect of which no international search report has been established need not be the subject of an international preliminary examination (Rule 66.1(e) PCT). The applicant is advised that the EPO policy when acting as an International Preliminary Examining Authority is normally not to carry out a preliminary examination on matter which has not been searched. This is the case irrespective of whether or not the claims are amended following receipt of the search report or during any Chapter II procedure. If the application proceeds into the regional phase before the EPO, the applicant is reminded that a search may be carried out during examination before the EPO (see EPO Guideline C-VI, 8.5), should the problems which led to the Article 17(2) declaration be overcome.
